

DECLARATION LETTER

Dear [Recipient],

I am writing this letter to formally declare [state the purpose of declaration]. As per [mention the reason for declaration], it is important for me to make this declaration.

[Explain the reason or situation that led you to make this declaration. Be concise and clear in your explanation, and provide any necessary details.]

I want to assure you that I have taken all necessary steps to ensure that [state the desired outcome of the declaration]. I understand the seriousness of this matter, and I am committed to complying with all relevant regulations and requirements.

Please let me know if you require any further information or documentation regarding this declaration. I am happy to provide any necessary details.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]